Summary statement

As at Nov 2026, my publications have received over 15,800 cites in Scopus (H score 57) and over 36,200 cites in Google Scholar (H score of 87).

In Scopus, 33 publications have over 100 citations each. Using SciVal, my average FWCI across all my publications over a 10 year period tends to be consistently higher than 2.5 for any period, with some individual publications achieving very high scores.

I have been included in the Stanford's World Top 2% of Scientists since 2020.
Using the 2026 data, ScholarGPS places me amongst the top 0.05% of scholars in several fields, including (for lifetime) 'impact assessment' (#1 in the world), 'agricultural extension' (#3 in the world), and 'environmental impact assessment' (#9 in the world).
For the 2025 data, I was in 2nd place for "Geography and Netherlands" (out of 1501 profiles), and 10th place for the University of Groningen (when listed by discipline ranking).

I have an extensive publication record with over 200 papers in refereed academic journals, over 50 chapters in edited books, 9 edited books, 2 co-authored books, and many other publications. Over 210 publications are included in Scopus. Various works have been translated into Arabic, Chinese, Farsi, Finnish, French, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, or Turkish.

My self-selected 10 best publications are listed in my CV:
