Accommodation Recommendations

We have compiled a list of suggested accommodation options in Groningen for your stay from July 6 -10, 2026, catering to different budgets and preferences. All options listed are conveniently located relative to the University of Groningen.

Important Notes

- This is a recommended list only - participants are free to choose accommodations outside these suggestions.
- Group rates or discounts may be available — check directly with the hotel.
- Exercise caution when booking, particularly on platforms like Airbnb where student-targeted scams have been reported.
- If you would like assistance verifying the legitimacy of any listing (whether from this list or elsewhere), please contact our support team.
- We strongly recommend booking through official hotel websites or verified booking platforms.
- Always verify the property's location and credentials before making any payments.

Please note that all options listed here are purely based on independent research, and we have no business relationships, affiliations, or interests with any of these accommodations. Participants are encouraged to make decisions critically and verify details on the respective platforms or official websites.

Final Notes

All prices listed are estimates based on 2025 rates and may vary for July 2026. We recommend booking well in advance to secure the best rates. The distances mentioned are approximate walking distances and may vary depending on specific locations within RUG campus.

Participants are encouraged to contact hotels directly to inquire about any available deals or special offers for summer 2026. When emailing or calling, mention your participation in the "International Summer School: Effective Teaching for the Future" at RUG. Always confirm the cancellation policy, payment terms, and whether breakfast or other amenities are included.

For any questions regarding accommodations, please contact the summer school organization team. We will be happy to assist you with any queries or provide additional recommendations.
